OUR CULTURE

We provide high-quality heavy building materials, but life at Martin Marietta is about more than what we do, it's about how we do it. In a world that's focused on the power of many, we believe in the power of ONE – the magic of bringing together our diverse perspectives, backgrounds, experiences and talents to create an inclusive, shared vision and future.

Whether in the quarry or in the office, each member of our team is on the same journey to build the dreams of our customers and communities, while laying a solid foundation for themselves. Along that path, we support each other so that each of us may enjoy a stable career for the long-term benefit of ourselves and our families, as well as our other stakeholders.

Together, we'll leave an impact that lasts well beyond tomorrow.

OUR COMMUNITY

With operations in more than 400 communities, we take seriously our commitments to our friends and neighbors. With those commitments in mind, we strive to build the homes, schools, roads and bridges that allow our towns and cities to flourish. We do so responsibly, knowing that the safe and ethical decisions we make today will set the foundation for future generations.
