Work Best

Due to the pandemic, our perspective on where work may successfully get done has changed over the last year. We learned some types of work can be done remotely, while other are best done in the office. However, we also recognize working physically onsite among peers offers benefits of its own. The WorkBest program promotes the best of how we work.

Additionally, we recognize many other companies are moving to a hybrid model (schedules that include both onsite and remote work), and flexibility is important to colleagues. WorkBest ensures we remain competitive for talent yet continues to support our strong relationship oriented culture at Comerica.
