This website describes benefits that apply to full-time employees who are eligible for model benefits. If you are a union employee or a production hourly employee in Cargill's Protein business, your benefits may vary.

Disclaimer: If there are any differences/discrepancies between the information on this website (www.cargill.com/page/my-health and all related pages) and the information in the Plan Documents and/or Summary Plan Descriptions (SPDs), the information in the plan document/SPDs will overrule. Employees will receive information on how to access SPDs based on their benefits eligibility.
